NB:

- I) In pursuance with the Decision of the Government of the Republic of Macedonia (Official Gazette of the Republic of Macedonia No. 123, dated 2 October 2008) nationals of EU member-states and signatories to the Schengen Agreement may enter into the Republic of Macedonia presenting a valid ID issued by the relevant authorities of the member-state concerned;
- II) Any foreign national possessing a valid multi entry Schengen visa type C (valid for the entire territory of the Schengen area) may enter and stay in the Republic of Macedonia up to 15 days without having to possess a Macedonian visa. The Schengen visa needs to be valid at least 5 days longer than the stay in the Republic of Macedonia permitted on the grounds of holding a Schengen visa;
- III) Any foreign national, holder of valid travel document of a third country, who is required to have visa for entry in the Republic of Macedonia, may enter the territory of the Republic of Macedonia without having to acquire Macedonian visa, if the foreigner has a permanent residence in EU or Schengen member state;
- IV) A foreigner is obliged to leave the Republic of Macedonia: When his/her visa expires, if his/her visa is annulled, when his/her temporary residence permit expires, if s/he is deprived of his/her right to residence, if s/he is expelled from the Republic of Macedonia, or when the time limit of maximum 3 (three) months in any half-year period expires as from the date of first entry, provided there is no visa requirement for entry into the Republic of Macedonia;
- V) Holders of UN travel documents are not required visas;
- VI) Macedonian visas are issued only at diplomatic consular missions of the Republic of Macedonia abroad.

1* As of 1 July 2012, nationals of the Republic of Macedonia travelling to Australia do not require a visa label in their passports.
Explanation: The Australian Government does not require a person holding a valid Australian visa to have a label in their passport to travel to, enter or remain in Australia.
 The Australian Government issues electronic visas. All visa records are stored on a central database in Australia. When you check-in to fly to Australia, airline staff electronically confirm that you have a valid visa to travel to Australia before you board the plane. When you receive your Australian visa you are issued with a visa grant notice that explains the conditions of the visa including period of validity and entry requirements. You are advised to carry this visa grant notice for your own reference.

2* Visa is not required for holders of diplomatic and service passports on reciprocal basis;

2a* Visa is not required for holders of diplomatic passports on reciprocal basis;

3* The Agreement between the Governments of the former SFRY and USSR on Mutual Travel of Citizens (of 3 October 1989) is applied to nationals of the Republic of Macedonia and to nationals of Belarus. According to this Agreement the following categories are exempt from the visa requirement:
